"MARY GARDEN" PERFUME

*I have received your perfume and find the odor exquisite and will be charmed to have it called by my name -
Monday, February 1, 1922
Very sincerely,
Mary Garden*

COPYRIGHT MISHKIN

If Mary Garden thinks a perfume good enough to bear her name it must be something special, for she insists on being "just a little different" in her selections.

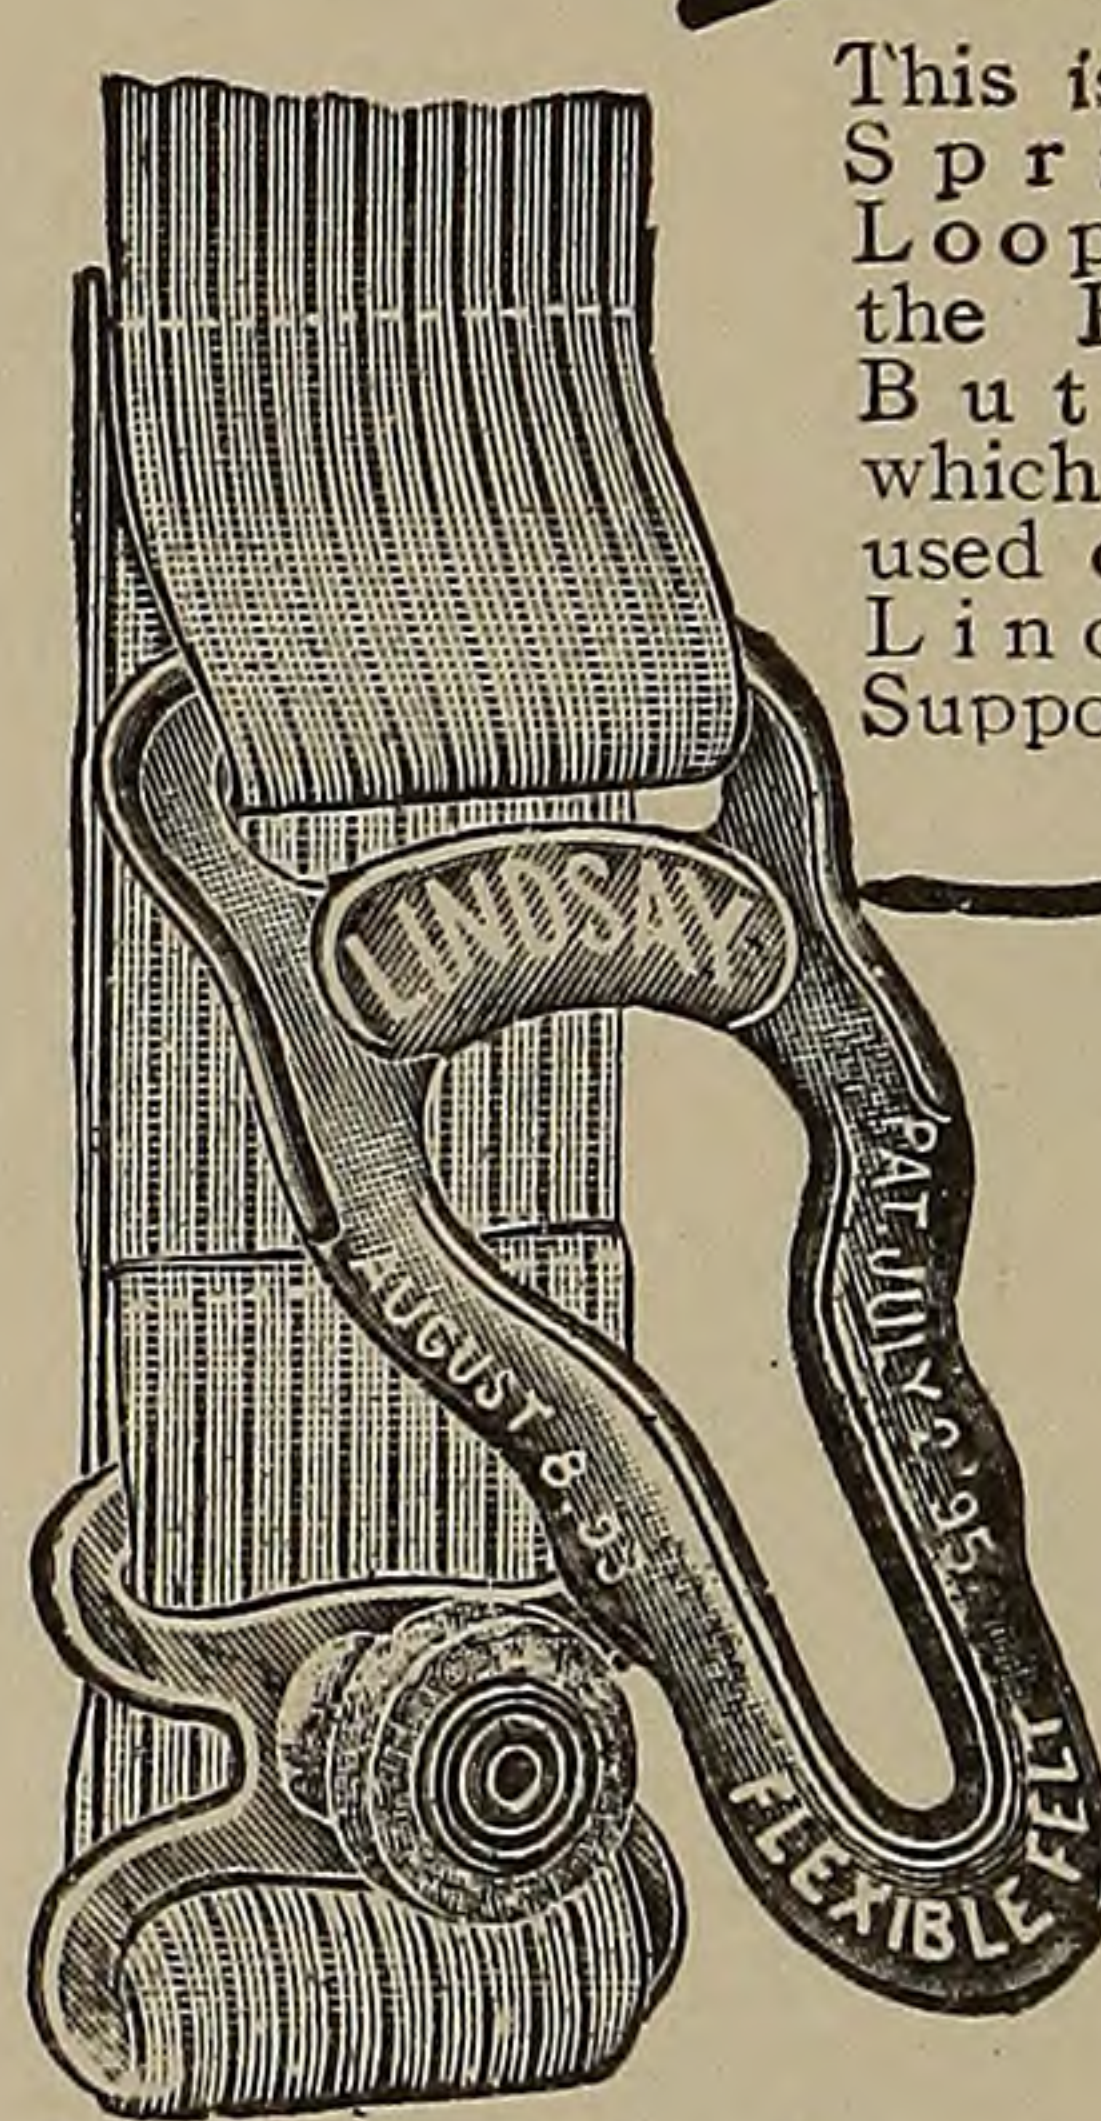

"Parfum Mary Garden" is something characteristic which recalls a dozen delightful olfactory sensations and incarnates the personality of the admirable artiste herself.

The Piano With an Individuality

The Weber

Art is the expression of individuality. Just as the music of Beethoven, of Chopin and of Schumann bears the unmistakable characteristics of the composer, so the Weber Piano possesses a distinct individuality of its own.

Once heard by the cultivated ear "Weber-Tone" is never forgotten. There is about it a richness, a beauty, a depth of coloring that at once distinguishes it from all other pianos.

For over fifty years it has been recognized that the tone of the Weber more nearly approached the singing quality of the human voice than that of any other piano.

POND'S EXTRACT COMPANY'S VANISHING CREAM

Called "Vanishing" because, when lightly applied with the tips of the fingers, it is immediately absorbed—vanishes—hence can be used most conveniently at any time without injury to gloves or clothes. It contains no oil or grease.

Vanishing Cream is scented with the delicate fragrance of Jacque Roses and is delightfully efficacious for Chaps and Wind-burn and gives prompt relief for all the other annoying skin discomforts.

A trial will convince you of the exquisite fragrance, daintiness, and purity of VANISHING CREAM.

so enthusiastically received at its premiere performance at the Metropolitan Opera House recently, and whom THE KAISER HONORED with the distinction of being the most Germanic of German composers, expresses his high regard for KNABE PIANOS in the following characteristic tone:—

"I am astonished in the highest degree to discover in the little Grand 'Mignonette' of the firm of Wm. Knabe & Co. an instrument which in fullness, power and sympathy of tone as well as in the possibilities of tonal modulation through its action has no equal; and through these combined qualities it impresses me as a real wonder of piano construction."

E. HUMPERDINCK.
